

MARCH 30TH
2025

DOORS..... 5:30PM
SCREENING..... 6PM

ABOUT THE FILM:

Las Cruces' first feature film put the city on the map as, "The Hollywood of the Southwest" when NMSU English Professor Orville "Buddy" Wanzer and his small cast of locals released it to a national premiere at the Rio Grande Theatre in 1965.

TICKETS

$12 General Admission
$5 Students

Be the first to see this newly restored version!

PROGRAM:

Film scholar Julia Smith will introduce the film, discuss her research in the Orville "Bud" Wanzer film archive at NMSU, and screen the trailer for her documentary inspired by the film, "Birth of the Acid Western." After the screening, she will host a Q&A.

Silco Theatre 311 N Bullard St, Silver City, NM

This event is a fundraiser for 'Birth of the Acid Western.'
Donations to the film fund can be made at: epcf.org/acidwestern
www.acidwesterndoc.com acidwesterndoc@gmail.com